TARIFF COMPLETED

Payne Aldrich Bill Ready to Be Made Law.

LUMBER REDUCED TO $1.25

President Taft Demanded and Secured Free Hides and Reduction on Lumber and Gloves—Duty On Shingles 50 Cents.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, July 29.—The Payne-Aldrich tariff bill tonight stands completed. An agreement on all disputed points was reached late this afternoon and the conferees' report was signed by the Republican conferees. It will go to the House tomorrow and be voted on by that body on Saturday. The Senate will on Monday begin consideration of the measure as agreed to by the conferees.

Halted by the mandate of President Taft, the tariff conferees were compelled to turn bacl and revise their rates on lumber and gloves. In a communication to Senator Aldrich and Representative Payne, the President demanded that the high rates on gloves as fixed by the House and the high rates on lumber as fixed by the Senate should not be made a part of the conference report.

After struggling over these questions throughout the entire day, the conferees surrendered to the President's request and signed the report. The report will go to the House tomorrow at noon and will be ordered printed. The House may be called to meet at 10 o'clock on Saturday, for it is the intention of the leaders that the report shall be pushed through in one legislative day. Probably a week will be required to dispose of the conference report in the Senate.

When the conferees agreed in lumber and glove rates yesterday by shading very slightly the higher rates on each they were so certain that the President would consent to the arrangement that notices were sent to the Democratic members of the conference committee to be present at 10 o'clock today to approve or disapprove of the conference report.

The President had other ideas of what the rates should be and expdessed them forcibly in a letter to the tariff conferees today. He said that lumber should not be more than $1.25 per thousand for rought with the differentials fixed by the Senate on finished lumber. He declared also that the Senate rates on gloves, which are the same as the Dingley rates and much less than the House rates, would have to be adopted in order to obtain his endorsement.

Not content with issuing an injunction against high rates on these articles, the President specified that hides must go on the free list and the House rates on boots and shoes and other manufactures of leather reduced. Hosiery, too, he thought should be reduced below the House rates, which were advances over the Dingley rates.

There was no opportunity to compromise on gloves. The President said the rates must not be advanced beyond the figures named by the Senate bill, which are the same as the existing duties, except for the fact that Schmaschen gloves were reduced by the Senate from $1.75 a dozen to $1.25. These rates were adopted.

On lumber some conscessions were made in spite of the fact that the President's instructions were complied with to the letter. Rough lumber was made dutiable at $1.25 per thousand feet; finished one side $1.75; finished on two sides or one side planed and tongued and grooved $2.15; finished on three sides $2.52 1-2, and finished on four sides $2.90.

To conciliate Senators Piles and Jones, the conferees adopted the Senate rate of 50 cents a thousand on shingles instead of the House rate of 30 cents.

In order to obtain the support of Senator Heybourn, the industries of whose State had been assailed through the abolition of the duty on hides, the reduction in the duty on lumber and the reduction in the differential on pig lead in bars, the latter schedule was re-considered. A rate of 2 1-8 cents a pound on pig lead in bars was fixed.

A concession was made to the industry today, by taking tallow off the free list.

The rates on hosiery were increased about 20 per cent. on grades valued at from $1 to $2 a dozen pairs. This is an increase over existing rates. On all other values of hosiery, the Dingley rates were retained.

When the minority members adjourned tonight it was announced that the tariff experts they had called in had proceeded far enough to show that the new bill will be an increase of from one to three per cent. over the ad valorems of the Dingley law. It is understood that in reaching this calculation the experts did not take into consideration transfers of articles from the dutiable to the free list, which the Republican conferees say would reduce the average ad valorems considerably below those of existing law.

INJUNCTION BY A. C. L.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., July 29.—An injunction was issued this evening by Judge Pritchard restraining the railroad commissioners of South Carolina from carrying into effect an order made by them requiring the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad to operate two unmixed trains daily between Conway, S. C., and Chadbourn, N. C.

The order which was issued upon the application of Attorney P. A. Willcox, of Florence, S. C., required the defendants to show cause here August 12th, why the injunction should not be made permanent but provides that upon four days notice the defendants may apply to the court to rescind or modify the injunction. The required injunction bond of $5,000 was given by the American Surety Company through its local president, J. P. Sawyer and Attorney J. C. Martin. The bill of complaint which was signed by Willcox & Willcox, Geo. B. Elliott, and Henry E. Davis, alleges that January 18th, the citizens of Conway and Loris, S. C. petitioned the railway to put on two trains daily between Conway and Chadbourn, a distance of 39 miles and upon this not being done, filed a petition with the railroad commissioners and said commissioners issued a notice requiring complainant to appear before it at Conway, March 24th, and on July 30th, said board ordered the railroad within 30 days to inaugurate two daily unmixed trains between Conway and Chadbourn.

The bill alleges that the commission has no power under the law to make such order, that the proceeding is illegal in that no provision is made for notice to defendant or for inquiry with witness and it interferes with inter-State commerce since it requires the running of trains between two States.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JONES.

Lumberton, N. C., July 29.—The funeral of Mrs. Caroline Jones, whose death was reported in yesterday's Star, was conducted yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock from her late residence, Rev. A. P. Tyer, a former pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of the Lumberton Methodist church. The very large crowd in attendance was an evidence of the high esteem and respect in which Mrs. Jones was held in this entire section. Mrs. Jones was born in Lumberton October 21st, 1838, and has spent her entire life in this town. For many years she has conducted a boarding house, and by her genial and kind disposition has made many friends not only in the community, but throughout the county, who will learn of her passing with genuine regret. It is doubtful if any lady in the county was more widely known, or had more friends than Mrs. Caroline Jones.

Those who acted as pallbearers were, honorary: C. B. Townsend, J. H. McNeill, F. L. Prevatt, G. E. Ranche, Sr., W. H. Humphrey, E. C. McNeill, M. G. McKenzie and Geo. M. Whitfield. Active: H. E. Carter, W. D. McIntyre, R. McA. Nixon, O. H. Bracy, L. B. Townsend and C. F. King.

An alarm of fire was sounded this morning at 1:30 o'clock and it was found that the planing mill and dry kilns of the Carolina Lumber Company, located in the southern part of the city, was burning. By hard work of a bucket brigade the saw mill was saved. Besides the planing mill and dry kilns a large quantity of lumber was destroyed. Origin of the fire unknown. Loss partially covered by insurance.

DEATH OF GOOD WOMAN

Mrs. Arra J. Freeman Passed Away Yesterday Evening.

Mrs. Arra J. Freeman, relict of the late Dr. John H. Freeman, of this city, and a woman held in the highest esteem by all in the circle of her acquaintance, died at 6:40 o'clock last evening at the Summer home of her son-in-law, Mr. George O. Gaylord, on Wrightsville Sound, and the announcement of her demise was received with genuine sorrow by her many friends in this city. The funeral services will be held from the First Baptist church at 5 o'clock this afternoon and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

Mrs. Freeman was Miss Arra Baldwin before her marriage to Dr. Freeman in 1861 and was born and reared in Columbus county. Since 1867 she has lived in this city continuously and was well known and held in the very highest esteem for her many womanly qualities, which endeared her to all. She was a consecrated member of the First Baptist church. Her husband preceded her to the grave several years, having died in November 1894.

Mrs. Freeman had been in ill health for some time and for the past two months was confined to her room, suffering with heart disease and complications. She grew decidedly worse yesterday morning and sank gradually until the end came at the hour mentioned. She is survived by one brother, Dr. A. M. Baldwin; one son, Mr. E. H. Freeman, and two daughters, Mrs. Lula Perry and Mrs. Geo. O. Gaylord, all of this city, who have the tenderest sympathy of the entire community in their deep sorrow.

SPAIN IS NEAR CRISIS

Desperate Conditions at Barcelona and in Morocco.

MAY OVERTHROW GOVERNMENT

Moors Brought a Crushing Defeat to Government Troops—Streets of Barcelona Running With Blood—Casualties.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Madrid, July 29,—The desperate condition of Spain both at home and abroad, was disclosed today when the Spanish government officially admitted the defeat of government troops in a great battle in Morocco, and at the same time reports showed that Barcelona was completely in the hands of a revolutionary mob, the streets running with blood and the Spanish artillery using machine guns in a vain attempt to check the onslaught of the revolutionary element.

The battle in Moroco has brought a crushing defeat to the Spanish forces. The casualties on the Spanish side reached 3,000, giving the defeat an aspect akin to that which the Italians met in invading Abyssinia.

The Moors flushed with their victory, are now advancing to attack the Spaniards at another strategic point, Alhucemas. The latest dispatches indicate that Melilla, the Spanish stronghold, is so pressed by the Moorish forces that its safety is in danger and its capitulation to the Moors would not cause surprise.

The internal condition of Spain is bordering on anarchy. Barcelona, the second largest city of Spain and the commercial rival of Madrid, is a center of riot.

The government at Madrid is meeting the situation with stern repressive measures. But the reports indicate that the military garrison at the capital is disaffected and the popular sentiment is shown by reports that a vast crowd has held an anti-war manifestation in front of the royal palace.

Official dispatches received here today admit that the battle between Moorish tribesmen and the Spanish forces outside of Melilla July 27th, was a disastrous defeat. The Moors cut off the communications with the Spanish outposts and the main force of the Spaniars was driven back under the walls of the city where fighting continued desperately in the city.

The Spanish killed and wounded numbered almost 3,000 which takes no account of the men at the advance posts who evidently were cut off and abandoned to their fate. Melilla is full of wounded men.

Hendaye, France, Spanish froutier, July 26.—Advices received here from a conservative and exceptionally well informed source in Madrid depict the situation, both exterior and interior as being more critical than at any time since the Cuban war.

Although the Spanish government seeks to give out the impression that the movement in Catalonia is anarchistic and simply a protest against the war in Morocco and the policy of Premier Maura, there are reasons to believe it is a great and spreading revolutionary movement which a combination of Republicans and Social Revolutionaries have been secretly and effectively preparing for a long time.

Rumors are even current that a provincial government has been proclaimed at Barcelona but this evidently is premature.

The desperate Moors, drunk with their successes, believe they can drive the Spanish forces into the sea. General Marina's men are worn out by continual night and day duty and the General has asked for 75,000 reinforcements.

AT MOORE'S CREEK

ON BATTLEGROUND YESTERDAY

Splendid Addresses by Hon. B. F. Dixon, Prof. M. C. S. Noble, President Jas. F. Moore and Others—Reunion.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Currie, N. C., July 29.—It is estimated that between 3,500 and 4,000 people, representing practically every county in the Cape Fear district, attended here today the annual celebration of the battle of Moore's Creek Bridge, scene of the first victory of American arms in the War of the Revolution, the feature of the celebration this year having been the unveiling of a handsome monument, erected by the descendants of a generous foe, to the memory of Capt. McLeod, Capt. Campbell and the fifty or more gallant Scotch Highlanders, Loyalists, who rushed to their death in the ambuscade of the Americans, in brave pursuance of a duty and in fulfilment of an obligation as sacred to them as were the principles which inspired the brave men whom they fought.

It was a great celebration; if anything, surpassing all others held on this historic spot and the large gathering on the grounds hallowed by the blood of both those who fought for and against allegiance joined reverently and patriotically in the spirit of the occasion. The celebration took place as usual on the beautiful grounds of the battle, about one mile from Currie, and the people of that town and community as well as the good people for miles and miles around exceeded themselves in their unbounded hospitality and solicitation for the pleasure and comfort of each and every visitor.

In spite of the exceedingly poor accommodations afforded by the Atlantic Coast Line from Wilmington and lack of advertisement of the celebration, more than 400 attended from the metropolis of the lower Cape Fear while nearly half as many came from the upper Cape Fear country on a special train from Fayetteville, returning the same evening. The people from the country round about for miles and miles came by private conveyance, arriving early and returning late in the cool of the day, while still others came by launch and boat up and down the historic stream which gives to the battle its name through the bridge which spans it at this point. The weather was ideal and nothing occurred to mar the perfect success of the observance in the slightest particular.

The people from Wilmington and Fayetteville were met at the station here by private conveyance while hundreds covered the short distance to the grounds on foot, joining the throngs already on the battlefield about 10 o'clock when music in the large pavilion, recently erected, announced that the exercises were about to begin. The music during the day was furnished by the Delgado Band, of Wilmington, which added no little to the success of the day with enlivening and patriotic airs. A very fervent prayer was offered in opening by Rev. J. A. Smith, of Wilmington, after which President Jas. F. Moore, of the Moore's Creek Monumental Association, who presided at the exercises during the day and who has rendered untold service in behalf of perpetuating the history of Moore's Creek Bridge, delivered a most cordial address of welcome in which he spoke of the singular pleasure it gave him to meet and welcome such a large gathering to the annual celebration.

In this mercenary age, he thought, we are too prone to forget and too often neglect to pay fitting homage to Revolutionary heroes and heroines of an epoch most important in our National existence and of the world's history. Since Colonial days the Cape Fear section had been fertile in tradition and history of heroic deeds; we have been a conservative people, quiet and upright in demeanor, always on the alert to resent any unjust oppression with manly force, and on all occasions, when infringements have been made on their rights, they have defended their cause with effective bravery.

Mr. Moore referred to the fact that North Carolinians had always had the honor of being first in important events, as in the deaths of John Grady, Henry Wyatt, Worth Bagley and others of sainted memory. The magnificent patriotism displayed by these men should animate every soldier in battle. He thought North Carolinians should cease boasting of our Declaration of Independence until our Legislature constructs on Moore's Creek battlefield a fitting slab to John Grady, the first martyr in the cause of freedom in our State. The Monumental association now has a bill pending in Congress appropriating $10,000 to erect there a suitable memorial to that able leader and hero, Gen. James Moore, admitted by all to have been more eminent in the profession of arms than any man of his day in North Carolina. Cols. Ashe, Kenan, Thackston, Hinton and Martin should also have recognition on this battlefield.

President Moore gave an interesting sketch of the battle of Moore's Creek in which he said there were about 1,000 patriots and 2,000 Scotch Highlanders and British engaged in the battle there; about 50 of the enemy were slain, 850 prisoners taken, with $75,000 in gold; $30,000 in war accoutrements. Few, if any, Revolutionary battlefields have greater claim to governmental recognition.

Mr. Moore referred with eloquence to the historic places of interest that could be seen from the pavilion on the crest of the hill, notably the brown stone shaft which marks the hallowed spot where the first victory for American Independence was achieved, this monument having been erected in 1857. Just half a century later, in 1907, was dedicated a handsome though tardy acknowledgement of woman's indispensable aid in war of which the speaker spoke most eloquently, pointing to the handsome monument just across the valley and then addressing himself to the monument to be unveiled today, said that we have at last yielded to those generous impulses of magnanimity which are so noble in the victor and built here a slab to those brave enemies of ours, the Scotch Highlanders, who like the Greeks at Thermopylae, died in the defense of principles to which they were loyal, "without a grave, unknelled, uncoffined and unknown."

"In erecting this tablet," he said, "we pay but feeble tribute to a courageous and honest foe, whose descendants have made good American descendants, many of whom have been foremost in aiding us in working out the many intricate problems of this great Nation. It is said of a Scotchman when he makes up his mind, that nothing but a sledge hammer or death can ever deter him; however this may be, this Nation owes to him much."

He trusted that whosoever is so fortunate that a reflecting sunbeam may be cast upon him from the shadow of this memorial, shall be inspired with that Heavenly injunction, "Peace on earth, good will to men." "This trio of sentinels," he continued, "pointing upward into ethereal space, erected to heroes and heroines, though eternal silence be their doom, they will ever reflect that elevated sentiment which enlightened patriotism pays to honest valor and to courageous acts."

Mr. Moore's peroration was especially pretty and eloquent, closing with the quotation to "let us then be up and doing," a proper finale for a most excellent address, which was warmly applauded.

Unveiling of the Monument.

After the address of welcome, the large crowd repaired to the base of the handsome new monument on an eminence to the right of the pavilion where the memorial exercises were concluded from an improvised stand erected by the Association. The unveiling was by Miss Annie Lucas, the demure and pretty little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Lucas, of Currie, whose paternal great grandfather was at the surrender at Yorktown and whose maternal great grandfather was a soldier on the battlefield of Moore's Creek Bridge. She performed the duties of her office with rare grace and modesty.

The presentation of the monument which was erected upon the initiative of Mr. James Sprunt, of Wilmington, and others who have long felt that this testimony to the Scotch Highlanders was too long neglected, was by Prof. M. C. S. Noble, of the University of North Carolina, who has done so much for the proper recognition of Moore's Creek in the histories and text books of the country and whose heart is ever in the perpetuation of the heroic deeds of our ancestors.

Prof. Noble expressed pleasure at being present at a celebration of brave men, who a century and a third ago, showed to the world that fighting love for liberty which is one of Carolina's most prominent characteristics. A reader of history from the earliest times can but be impressed with the fact that North Carolinans will "fight anybody, anywhere, any time when they think it necessary to do so to protect their liberty or their property." This is plain when we come to know the hardships endured by the early settlers and the Albemarle, the real causes of the War of the Regulation, the long and desperate struggle of the Revolutionary period, or the dark and trying days of the Civil War.

He referred to the splendid history of the valley of the Cape Fear, its topography and the battles of Guilford Elizabethtown and Moore's Creek, all of Revolutionary fame, and of the limping march of Cornwallis to Wilmington after his victory at Guilford Courthouse.

"During the early days of the settlement of Carolina," he continued, "the rich lands of this valley of the Cape Fear attracted many emigrants, and, as early as 1729 we find among the new comers many of that famous breed of men called Scotch Highlanders.

"After the battle of Culloden, the harsh and unparalleled treatment inflicted upon the defeated Highlanders forced hundreds of them to seek new homes in America and soon large numbers came to this country and settled round about Cross Creek. In fact, there was among the downtrodden, and harassed, and maligned people in Scotland, a perfect mania for North Carolina which existed up to the revolution, and glad we are today that these men came here and builded their homes in the pine forests of North Carolina.

At the breaking out of the revolution, these Highlanders had to make a decision and become either Whigs or Tories. Nearly all of those who had come since the battle of Cullo-

Goldsboro and Raleigh having each dropped a game to Wilmington and Rocky Mount, respectively, yesterday, Wilson again takes the lead in the Eastern Carolina League this morning with the status of each of the other teams in the Association very satisfactory and attended by that element of uncertainty which will make the remainder of the week's series very interesting indeed.

The game here yesterday, which was won by Wilmington in a score of four to two, was very unsatisfactory to both teams on account of erratic decisions by Umpire Suggs, who has been relieved after his "first offense" and will be superseded by a more experienced man in the game this afternoon. The game yesterday is hard to analyze. Ashton started the slab work for the Sailors but was hit on the arm by a pitched ball in the seventh and had to retire in favor of Howard. Otis was on the slab for the visitors and pitched his usual great game, having the best of his opponents in number of hits yielded collectively but not so well scattered.

Each team was up and down in order in the first and the same was true of Wilmington in the second, but in its half of the latter Goldsboro sent a man across the marble when after Crockett flew out to first and Doak was out pitcher to first, Gettig made a neat placement in right and came home on Pritchard's two-base hit to left, Fulton flying out to right. Another was added in the third when after Otis had fanned, Smith singled to left and Murphy through short, Smith scoring on Sharp's swat to right for a couple of bases, Murphy being caught at third, Crockett flying to Levy.

Wilmington partially retaliated in its half of the third when after Kite was out catcher to first, Grainger took a stroll, stole second and went to third on Ashton's bingle over second, Ashton being out attempting to steal second, but scoring Grainger. Nichols then clouted out to centre for two bases but Guerrant fouled out to first.

After Goldsboro was out in order in the fourth, Sharp making a beautiful stop of Pritchard's drive to his territory, Wilmington tied the score after Brodie had popped out to first and Levy flew to right. Sharp beat out a bunt down third base line and stole second, scoring on Gettig's muff of a high one off the bat of Jayes, who was, however, out at second after Sharp had scored.

There was no more run-getting for Goldsboro although after Fulton fanned, Otis was safe on error of Guerrant in the fifth and Smith hit a fly to Jayes who muffed it but recovered the ball quickly. Murphy was then out pitcher to first and Sharp third to first. For Wilmington Kite popped out to short, Grainger drew another pass but was out on attempted steal of second; Ashton was hit by pitcher but Nichols fanned.

In the sixth Crockett flew to Brodie; Doak hit safely through short but Gettig hit to second and both runners were doubled. For Wilmington Guerrant was out pitcher to first, Brodie short to first, Levy second to first.

In the seventh Howard relieved Ashton and after Pritchard was out third to first, Fulton and Otis fanned. For Wilmington Sharp was out third to first; Jayes hit to third too hot to handle and stole second; then after Kite popped out to second, Grainger was up and Jayes stole third. Before the umpire called the decision, the Goldsboro players came running in and later he was called safe. This brought on argument and before anybody knew what had happened, Jayes scored. Capt. Crockett protested the game and the kicking was long and strenuous; Grainger was hit by a pitched ball but Howard fanned.

In the eighth after Smith was out at first, Howard covering the base, Murphy and Sharp made successive scratch hits but Crockett fanned and Doak was out at first unassisted. Wilmington ran in another in spite of Goldsboro's protest when in the eighth Nichols was hit by pitched ball and stole second after Guerrant popped

HON. B. F. GRADY'S LATEST PUBLICATION.

The Hon. B. F. Grady, of Clinton, sends The Star a copy of his latest publication, a monograph on "Sectionalism and Some of its Fruits." The author has no desire to raise sectional questions that have been threshed over but merely to set history straight for the benefit of future generations who would know the truth. He explains in his booklet:

"There is a growing disposition all over the South to forget the past, to treat the long quarrel between the sections as ancient history, and teach our children to think of all the States in the Union with equal respect and patriotic pride, and no one can more heartily sympathize with this tendency than I could if it did not carry with it an acceptance of the North's explanation of sectional unfriendliness in this country. To this I can never consent, and I propose in this pamphlet to set forth the evidence on which all unbiased readers can decide for themselves who was responsible for our sectional antagonism."

Thus Mr. Grady explains his object and purpose, and in the pages following he presents in a lucid and logical way the proof of his contentions, including documentary statements and other forms of the questions upon which the sections took opposing views and subsequently plunged the country into war.

Mr. Grady is an able disputant and engaging writer, and the historical points which he makes are interesting and valuable. He presents the subject with force and it is the crowning work of his declining years—years of honor and usefulness. He was born in Duplin county and is a true and patriotic son of North Carolina. More than half a century ago he graduated from the North Carolina University, and when the Civil War begun he was professor of Mathematics and Natural Sciences in Austin College Texas. He enlisted in the Confederate service in 1862, and was 1st Sergeant of Company K, 25th Texas Cavalry. He served with gallantry till the close of the war, and for many years has been a resident of his native section of North Carolina, having ably represented the Third Congressional District in the House of Representatives from 1891 to 1895. He has since resided on his farm in Sampson county, and has taken time to write on subjects of a historic-educational nature. Among his productions are "The Case of the South Against the North," and "The South's Burden," each of which will go down into the history of the South, along with his latest work. He is a scholarly, old school Southerner, and in the sunset of life he retains the confidence and love of the people whose cause he has ever defended with sword and pen.

"Sectionalism and Some of Its Fruits" will be mailed post paid upon receipt of 25 cents, sent to him at Clinton, N. C.

NORTH CAROLINA INVENTIONS.

Many valuable inventions originate in North Carolina but too many of them are manufactured in other States where capital takes hold of them. This is illustrated by the news from Asheville on Tuesday that the inventor of a plow of superior merit had sold his invention for $25,000 to some manufacturers in a Tennessee city.

Why didn't Asheville capital take hold of that plow and manufacture it there? Our cities are looking for new industries and some of them let slip what promises the foundation of large manufacturing interests.

The genius of North Carolina inventors should be recognized by our own people. Local capital should be raised to manufacture North Carolina inventions. Many of them are money makers and the State should get the benefit of the genius of her sons. No outsider should be allowed to gobble up a meritorious invention if a North Carolinian with money sees it before the other fellow gets a chance at it.

The Star's exchanges frequently mention new inventions, and they should be investigated for exploitation by our enterprising men. One of the latest inventions noted is referred to by the Pender Chronicle, of July 29th, and the inventor is Mr. W. L. Hall of Duplin county. The machine is what the Chronicle calls "a very much needed mowing machine" and a representative of that paper saw it at Rose Hill a few days ago. The Chronicle says of it:

"The device is simple and yet fills the long felt want among farmers. It is a one horse, one wheel mowing machine with a vertical blade and is designed to cut vines out between rows of corn or to cut up in strips any very thick and running forage such as pea vines or beans. By running twice in the row you can cut all the pea vines away from the corn and not hurt the corn at all. Having only one wheel the blade can be leaned over toward the corn or held away at will. The pea vine hay and forage made on corn is of as much value as the grain itself and, in many cases more, but as the means of getting this forage has been so expensive it is hardly ever cut. With this additional source of forage we trust that the Southern farmer will not have to continue the purchase of his hay from Western States. Mr. Hall has received quite a good deal of encouragement and expects before next season to have the new machine on the market."

Who knows but what the Hall mower will fill a long felt want and that there may be money in it both for the inventor and some live manufacturer?

Evidently the Asheville man's plow was a good thing, for the purchaser gave him a little fortune for it.

The ex-Shah, of Persia, instead of having a decree issued for his head to be cut off, is being congratulated because he is to receive a pension of $25,000. We positively refuse to believe that the Shah is entitled to congratulations till we know that he has given up all idea of attempting to maintain a harem with his pension money.

"When did the fool era arrive?" inquires an exchange. It seems to have hit Georgia in the last election when the fools' union got in its work and sent its representatives to the Legislature.

With the Philippines and Cuba on its hands, we have not failed to observe the lack of alacrity and the neglect of celerity which the United States exhibits in not establishing a protectorate over Liberia.

Dr. Len G. Broughton says: "Make the girls learn to do housekeeping." Hurry up and learn them for there is no telling how soon any man may need one.

Wheat sold in Chicago on Wednesday for $1.34 a bushel. How would you like to marry the wheat growers' daughter?

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Out of 130,795,927 spindles in all the cotton mills there are 53,500,000 in Great Britain and less than 28,000,000 in the United States. Why is England able to sell more cotton goods? Because it has no Chinese tariff walls and buys from the people to whom it sells. Our prohibition tariff limits growth.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—All American exporters concerned are warned by Consul General Denby that they'll never get rich by selling pins to the people of Shanghai. "The Chinese have no use for pins," he says, "strings and knots and loops meeting every requirement of male and female, young and old, to keep his or her garments securely and neatly fastened."—New Orleans States

—The North Carolina banks continue to prosper despite the failure of long promised good times to arrive. The Corporation Commission reports that the State private and savings banks have aggregate resources of $50,389,620.57, a gain of $5,023,120 over 1908. There are 313 of these banks which do not take into account the national banks, as compared with 294 twelve months ago. North Carolina's banks are, as they always have been, all as sound as the soundest, and that their number and business should increase is no cause for surprise.—Salisbury Post.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO.
Atlanta, Ga.

—Elizabeth City, July 28.—Scipio Jennings, a prosperous farmer of this county, was this afternoon in a preliminary hearing before Justice N. R. Parker, placed under a bond of $1,750 for his appearance at the next term of Superior Court upon the charge of having carnal knowledge of a girl under fourteen years of age. The girl is Ruth Marshall, an orphan of the Streeter Home of Greensboro. She has been an inmate of Jennings' mother's home for the past four years. Jennings is about 35 years old and is unmarried. The case is exciting the liveliest interest and much comment. The point of contention is the age of the girl. It is claimed by the prosecution that she is under fourteen. The asylum authorities have announced that they will help to prosecute the case. Solicitor Ward is taking considerable interest in the case. He was represented at the hearing this afternoon by Attorney Grimes, his law partner. The Marshall girl is now an inmate of the County Home, where it is said she took refuge on account of bad treatment at Jennings' home, after her unfortunate condition was learned.

THE THIN AND WEAK

Easy Way For Them to Get Strong and aFt.

Samose is not an ordinary medicine; it is a flesh forming food that is adapted to the most delicate. Its tonic effect gives strength and health so that after its use for a short time, all the flesh and fat producing elements in the food will be easily assimilated and retained by the body.

The large sale Druggists, J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. have had on Samose since they first introduced it in Wilmington and the wonderful results following its use have made them such enthusiastic believers in its great merits, that, they give their personal guarantee to refund the money if Samose does not make thin people fat and restore strength and health.

When a gain in weight is noticed after Samose has been used for a week or ten days, and health has improved and you notice yourself growing stronger, you certainly should feel more than satisfied with what you have received from the small cost of 50c.

There may be one or two out of every hundred who begin the use of Samose who are not helped as they expect. In all these cases Druggists J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. will return the money without any questions.

"Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure Liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

MR. TAFT AT STATE FAIR

Delegation Will Call Upon President With Invitation Saturday—Men Back From Encampment. Other News Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 29.—Capt. J. H. Currie, of Cumberland, president of the State Fair Association, will lead a delegation to visit President Taft at the White House next Saturday morning and request him to visit the State Fair this Fall. Capt. Currie today received a telegram from Senator J. E. Pogue announcing that Senator Simmons had arranged for an interview with President Taft Saturday morning.

A large number of the officers and men of the Second Regiment just back from their annual encampment at Camp Glenn, Morehead, are liberally supplied with colds which they say are due to their having been called to arms about 3 o'clock one morning just as they would be summoned if some enemy should invade the camp. The stirring bugle calls left no time for the men to pull on their clothing and they lined up in all manner of night dress and "undress" and went through the emergency maneuvers for 20 minutes, a stiff wind blowing the while. Then only a few minutes before the men had been ordered back to their tents the rain came down in torrents. Then, too, it was a cold, raw morning. Of course in the regular service on a fighting campaign the men would be expecting such calls and would sleep equipped for these emergency calls.

Prof. Carl Leake, of Meridian, Miss., has been engaged as director for the Second Regiment Band here and the A. & M. College Band and will arrive here next week to take up his duties.

The statement is issued by the Corporation Commission that a great many corporations in the State have not yet made their annual reports to the Commission as required by law. The time limit was up July 1. The Commission wants it understood that all these delinquent corporations are now liable for heavy penalties, and that if these reports are not forthcoming within the next few days actions for the recovery of the forfeits will be brought.

Governor Kitchin issued requisition today on the Governor of Tennessee for James DuBose, wanted in Mecklenburg county for the murder of Archie Belk, he being now under arrest in Johnson City. And for Joe Roberson, wanted in Winston for an assault with a razor. He is a prisoner at Martinsville, Va.

Worked Too Well.

A hotel proprietor, noticing that some of his customers were evidently trying to eat their suppers in the shortest possible time, lest they should miss the boat which was waiting at the wharf, thought it would be funny to frighten them. Accordingly he went into a back room and gave a remarkably perfect imitation of a steamboat's whistle. The joke worked well. The men heard the sound and rushed to the boat. The joker laughed long and loud until suddenly it occurred to him that the men had gone off without paying for their suppers. Then he stopped laughing.—London Town and Country Journal.

It Didn't Fall Out.

"I see your hair is falling out, sir," remarked the hairdresser, who was getting ready to work the hair tonic idea on the customer.

"You don't see anything of the sort," rejoined his victim. "What you see is the sequel to a falling out between Mrs. Codgers and myself."—London Answers.

The Tailor's Patron Saint.

The tailor's saint is St. John the Baptist, but why we do not know, for, as far as sacred writ informs us, "his clothing was of camel's hair and a leather girdle about his loins."—Tailor and Cutter.

Cheering Her Up.

"I hear you are going to marry Charley."

"Yes; he asked me last evening."

"Let me congratulate you. Charley is all right. He is one of the nicest fellows I was ever engaged to."

The Easier Way.

"I was very angry just now when Bleeker asked me for £5 that I owed him."

"But why did you get angry?"

"I found it much easier to get angry than to pay."—London Tit-Bits.

CHIEF SCHNIBBEN HURT.

In a fire several nights ago at the Jacobi hardware store, which will be recalled was extinguished with small damage, Chief Charles Schnibben sustained injury from an electric wire, which at that time was believed to be only slight, but later developed to be a broken rib.

Chief Schnibben suffered severe pain from his injury and the broken rib on the right side was discovered by Dr. Schonwald upon examination. His friends will be pleased to know that he is able to be out, but he will be unable to respond to alarms for the present.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY

Strongly Urges Establishment of a Disposal Plant For City Refuse. County Institutions in Splendid Shape.

Having finished its work for the term the grand jury at the present term of New Hanover County Superior Court made its report at 3:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Judge Allen complimented the jurors on the report and instructed the clerk to send a copy to the city authorities, as a portion of it referred to the immediate need of a disposal plant for city refuse matter.

Upon suggestion of Solicitor Duffy the jurors were not discharged as matters needing their attention might develop before the end of the term. They were temporarily discharged and are to be notified by the sheriff if they are wanted again. The report is as follows:

"Wilmington, N. C., July 29, 1909.

"To His Honor, Judge O. H. Allen, Presiding July term Superior Court.

"We, the grand jury appointed at this July term of Superior Court of New Hanover county beg to submit the following report:

"There have been acted upon eight bills of indictment, one of which was for a capital offense and the others for felonies and misdemeanors.

"We examined and reported to the court six true bills and returned two untrue bills and made six presentments, which were properly returned to the court.

"The jail we visited and found in good condition and the sanitary conditions properly cared for, and prisoners stated they are well cared for and their food properly served and well prepared.

"The Court House building we find properly and neatly kept and owing to the fact that the plans are now being made by the architects for necessary repairs, we deem it unnecessary to make any recommendations. We found books and papers in the Clerk's office properly and systematically kept, also those in the office of the Register of Deeds.

"The County Home on Castle Haynes road we find in good condition, and all inmates properly cared for and all crops in fine condition. We suggest that, if it be advisable, there should be kept a few cows so as to furnish milk and butter for the inmates.

"The convict camp on Market street road is splendidly kept, and effective work is being done upon public road with the convict labor. We find the health of the prisoners exceedingly good and food well prepared and cooked and no complaints as to any ill or improper treatment of prisoners.

"We visited all of the above institutions in a body.

"The attention of the grand jury has been directed to the proper disposal of city refuse, which is one of the most serious matters for its consideration. The Board of Health, which is the custodian of the lives of our citizens, has made excellent rules for the disposition of the refuse, but there seems to be a lack of proper effort for the enforcements of these regulations by those intrusted with that duty. Your grand jury recommends the erection of a crematory as the most successful system of disposing of same, so as to fully protect and preserve the health of our people, and in a flat country this is a matter so important that the question of expense should hardly be considered. This matter should be called to the immediate attention of the city authorities and proper steps taken at once to remedy the present unsanitary conditions and, being called to public attention, of not remedied, a subsequent grand jury should take action.

"Respectfully submitted.

"J. W. WILLIAMSON, "Foreman.

"C. E. KERR, "Secretary."

LOCAL DOTS.

—Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Longbottom, the remains of Miss Helen Crawford, a sister of the latter, were taken last night to Chester, Pa., the home of the deceased, where the funeral and burial will be held tomorrow.

—What promises to be thoroughly enjoyable concert will be given in the ball room of Tarrymoore, Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, tonight. A number of trained musicians have consented to take part and an attractive programme will be rendered. The concert is arranged for the guests of the hotel and the beach visitors generally and no admission will be charged.

Seashore Hotel Dance.

The Seashore Hotel dance will be the occasion of interest at Lumina tonight. The music will be furnished by the combined orchestras of the Seashore Hotel and Lumina, making an orchestra of seventeen, which will make the events most attractive. It is expected that a large crowd will attend and take part in the festivities.

BEN BARGE, JR., IS ON TRIAL

Charged with killing John Phifer, colored, in this city last November, Ben Barge, Jr., colored, was placed on trial for his life in the Superior court yesterday. It appears now that the trial of the case will very likely consume the remainder of this week.

When the case was called yesterday morning Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., counsel for the defendant, renewed his motion for a continuance on the same grounds as given Tuesday when the trial was set for yesterday—that he had not had time to prepare his case and that he had been paid only a portion of his fee. Solicitor Rodolph Duffy, who was able to be in court yesterday and assume his duties, vigorously resisted the motion and said that so far as preparation was concerned he was no better off than the counsel for the defendant. The solicitor stated in this connection that if he had been present when the case against Joseph Stephens was continued he would have strongly resisted the motion of the counsel for the defense. He asked Judge Allen if it would be possible to revoke the order and set the case for trial next week. The judge replied that he did not feel that he should unless counsel for the defendant consented. The motion of Mr. Bellamy to continue the case was again denied and the selection of the jury was commenced.

Solicitor Duffy is assisted in the prosecution by his law partner, Mr. E. M. Koonce, who acted for the solicitor during the first days of the court. He was also assisted by Joseph W. Little, Esq., of the local bar, in the selection of the jury. Mr. Meares Harriss, the expert court stenographer, is taking the testimony in the case.

The crime with which Barge is charged is familiar to those who read the newspapers. It will be recalled that he and John Phifer had a dispute over a small amount of money Barge claimed Phifer owed him. The shooting occurred on the 9th day of November of last year and Phifer died at the James Walker Memorial Hospital on the night of the 10th.

Judging from the questions of the counsel for the defendant the plea is self defense. The two negroes, witnesses for the State, testifying yesterday strengthened the case of the defendant, both swearing that Phifer was advancing upon Barge at the time of the shooting, one stating that Phifer had an open knife in his hands a short time before the fatal shot was fired and while the two were disputing.

The Selection of the July.

The selection of the jury required less time than is usually the case where a capital offense is charged. The State peremtorily challenged one, J. P. Carr, and the defense four, R. F. Thompson, W. S. Cooper, M. S. Willard and A. T. Parker. At 11:30 o'clock the jury had been selected and empanneled. Six jurors were selected from the regular panel and six from the special venire of 75 summoned. The personnel of the jury as selected and empanneled is as follows: E. J. Grimsley, Jr., J. E. Hale, F. B. LeGwin, J. R. Windley, C. G. Southerland, J. W. Scott, M. L. Cook, W. H. Lane, John Petet, A. A. Holden, D. W. Willis, Jas. F. Craig.

When the jury had been empanneled a recess was taken until 12 o'clock in order to allow counsel on either side to examine witnesses they had not had an opportunity to see prior to the convening of court. When court reconvened the State called Coroner C. D. Bell to the stand. Dr. Bell testified that he was notified on the night of November 10th, 1908, that John Phifer had died at the hospital and that on the morning of the 11th he summoned a jury to hold an inquest. The body was viewed at the hospital after which the testimony of the witnesses was heard. Phifer was shot on the afternoon of November 9th. He was apparently 22 years old. Dr. Bell said that Phifer had a pistol shot wound in the abdomen which caused his death.

Willie King, colored, was an eye witness to the tragedy. He proved to be a good witness for the defense. It was stated that his testimony differed materially from that given by him at the coroner's inquest and to Acting Solicitor Koonce in private Wednesday afternoon. On the day of the shooting Phifer, the witness testified, went to the store of W. H. T. Brown, on Eighth street, where the witness was at work, and after staying there a few minutes he left, returning again in about a half an hour and asked John Louis Smith, colored, who was then at the store, to let him have a pistol for which he would pay $1. Smith did not have one and Phifer made the same proposition to the witness, who also did not have a pistol. Phifer walked out of the store and as he reached the door Ben Barge jumped over a fence about 30 feet from the store. The two negroes met, standing about four feet apart. Witness heard Barge ask Phifer for some money he claimed that was owed him. Heard him repeat the demand and say that he would ask him one more time and if he didn't pay him he would kill him. Phifer, according to witness had some money in his left hand and had his right hand in his hip pocket. When Barge made the declaration that he would kill Phifer, the later advanced toward Barge as if to do him personal harm. Barge moved backwards a few steps and then fired. Phifer fell to the ground, throwing the money down, and exclaiming, "Oh Lord, Ben, you have shot me." Witness did not see Barge again until he saw him in jail last week. With the examination of King court took a recess until 3 o'clock.

It was 3:15 when the afternoon session convened. One witness was examined, after which a recess was taken until this morning on motion of Mr. Bellamy. The witness was John Louis Smith, colored, a United States prisoner, who was brought from the jail to testify. He corroborated Willie King. On cross-examination by Mr. Bellamy witness said that Phifer had and an open knife in his hand just prior to the shooting and when the shot was fired he had one hand in his pocket and the other contained some money. The witness stated that he told the story of the affair to Patrolman Chas. Jones shortly after it occurred and Solicitor Duffy had a subpoena issued for the officer. At 4:30 o'clock court took a recess until this morning.

JOINT MEETING OF BOARDS

Matter of Cleaning Streets and Removal of Garbage and Trash Considered at Length—Street Matters Discussed.

At a joint meeting of the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Audit and Finance, held in the aldermanic chamber yesterday afternoon, the comparative cost of cleaning the streets and removing trash and garbage by contract, as at present, and by the city, as proposed by the Aldermen, was considered at length, and at the close of an hour the two Boards were no nearer together than they have been from the outset, except that the members of the Streets and Wharves committee were instructed to confer with the Board of Audit and Finance with a view of arriving at something definite. The conference will be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The meeting was called to order shortly after 4 o'clock by Mayor Pro Tem. S. J. Ellis, who presided in the absence of the Mayor. The members of the Board of Aldermen present were: Aldermen Hinton, Bonitz, West, Fales, Willard, Hall, and of the Board of Audit and Finance, Chairman M. J. Heyer, M. G. Tiencken, H. C. McQueen and Jesse Wilder. City Clerk and Treasurer John J. Fowler was at his post. Captain Thos. D. Meares, clerk to the Board of Audit and Finance, was also present. Mr. Ellis stated that the meeting had been called by the Mayor for the purpose of considering the matter of the appropriations made by the Board of Aldermen for street work and for the removal and garbage and trash from the streets, concurrence in which had been deferred by the Board of Audit and Finance. Chairman M. J. Heyer, of the Board of Audit and Finance, said that his Board had deferred action in order to get more specific information relative to comparative cost of cleaning the streets and removing the trash and garbage by contract and by the city, and as the Aldermen had not furnished the information as requested the joint meeting was decided upon.

Chairman Fred W. Bonitz, of the Streets and Wharves committee, proceeded to give what figures he had. He said that he estimated that a sum of $11,400 would be needed in the street cleaning department for the year's work as it is done at present, his calculations being based upon the cost of the work for the past two months. Combining the street cleaning and santitary departments work would cost between $15,500 and $16,000, not including the purchase of teams. Mr. Heyer said that it appeared to his board that the work could be done at least $3,500 cheaper by contract. Mr. Heyer questioned City Attorney McClammy as to the legality of the city doing the work at a greater cost than it could be done by contract. Mr. McClammy said that the city should get the work done as cheaply as possible and that if the city undertook the work and it cost more than by contract any citizen would have the right to secure an injunction against the city. Mr. Heyer said, and his remarks were concurred in by the other members of his board, that for the present the work should be done by contract unless it could be shown that the city would save money by a change and that the work would be done as well or better. He said the streets of Burgaw and Kenansville were kept in a better condition than the streets of Wilmington.

Alderman Hall stated that the discussion was enlightening to him. He thought that there was a misunderstanding between the two boards or that there was an error in the figures of Mr. Bonitz. He believed that the city could do the work much cheaper than a contractor, who is not in the business for the fun of it. He moved that the Streets and Wharves committee confer with the Board of Audit and Finance and carefully consider the matter. The motion prevailed and it was decided to hold the conference at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Ellis said that he had been in charge of the sanitary work of the city for the past two years and had done the best he could to get the contractors to do the work properly. He thought that each firm needed a competent superintendent. In his opinion the city could not keep the streets clean for less money than it cost by contract but he thought that it could be done much better for the same amount of money.

Dr. Joseph Akerman, city superintendent of health, was called upon to make a statement of the conditions as he knew them to exist. He said that the sanitary work was not being done satisfactory and made the startling statement that unless something was done and done at once the city would be in the midst of an epidemic of typhoid fever within six weeks that it would long remember. He said that it was not a theory, but a practical matter that confronts city. Mr. Heyer said that he inferred from the statements made in the meeting that the contractors were not doing anything. Dr. Akerman answered by stating that they were doing something but not what they ought to. The members of the Board of Audit and Finance retired at this juncture and the Aldermen proceeded to transact other business.

Rev. Dr. James Carmichael appeared before the Board and asked that the city give the Wrightsville Methodist church the benches that are being taken out of the opera house. Contractor H. E. Bonitz said that most of the benches had been used in the building. On motion of Alderman Willard, seconded by Alderman Fales, the remaining benches were given to the trustees of the church.

Street Matters.

The Board was asked to reconsider its former action in ordering the improvement of Wright street, from Front to Sixth, and Third street, from Wright to Greenfield, to meet the macadam being put down on the Carolina Beach road by the County Commissioners. Mr. Geo. E. Burnett presented a largely signed petition asking that Dawson street be improved, this instead of Wright street, and Woodus Kellum, Esq., a petition for property owners on Second street asking that that street be used instead of Third. Postmaster T. E. Wallace spoke in favor of the Third street route, and Mr. Kellum strongly urged the selection of Second street. On motion of Alderman Bonitz the matter was laid on the table, and on motion of Alderman Willard the city clerk was instructed to notify the County Commissioners that the city would macadamize Third street to Greenfield.

Alderman Bonitz presented a resolution providing that the lessee of the opera house be allowed to make entrance through the City Hall to Third street to be used exclusively by white people for one season and if found unsatisfactory to be closed and entrance changed to the Princess street side as at present. Mr. Ellis requested that the matter not be acted upon until the regular meeting Monday night when Mayor MacRae, whom he understood was opposed to the proposition, would be present and state his objections. The request was granted.

On motion of Alderman West the Board appropriated $100 for the erection of a drinking fountain for animals at or near the corner of 15th and Market streets.

Alderman Fales asked for an appropriation of $200 for the employment of a detective to capture "blind tigers" in his neighborhood, near Sixth and Castle streets. He said thirsty ones frequented that section in great numbers on Sunday and Sunday night. The matter went over until the regular meeting. In this connection the Aldermen discussed briefly the City Attorney's appearance in the Recorder's court as prosecutor of "blind tiger" cases. They agreed that it was an unnecessary expense to the city as the County Attorney was always present to look after the cases.

It was after 6 o'clock when the board adjourned.

ATLANTIC COAST LINE STOCK.

Article of Interest to Local Investors in National Paper.

An article of unusual interest to Wilmington people, on account of their large holdings of Atlantic Coast Line Railroad securities, appears in the United States Investor under date of July 24th. The writer takes up the history of the road from its organization, and a more remarkable record of railroad development is not to be found in our annals. It is shown that every owner of $10,000 of original Wilmington and Weldon Railroad (parent company of the present Atlantic Coast Line system) stock has received in interest bearing securities and cash dividends the astonishing amount of more than $200,000 in 23 years. Another fact, not generally known, is that the Atlantic Coast Line of Connecticut stock controls a larger number of feet of railroad per share than any other American road. The number of feet owned by each share of Atlantic Coast Line of Connecticut stock is 4,752, while the next highest ownership is in the case of Rock Island, whose stock controls only 84 feet per share. In other words, the owner of each share of the former stock has nearly one mile of railroad at work for him.

The writer publishes a story for some time past current in Wall Street to the effect that Mr. Harriman recently offered Mr. Henry Walters $50,000,000 for the latter's $6,000,000 of stock in the Atlantic Coast Line Co. of Connecticut. The offer was declined by Mr. Walters on the ground that he would not consider any bid for his individual holdings of stock unless the same price was offered to every minority stockholder. The latter has certainly been Mr. Walter's disposition toward smaller stockholders in the past—a fact that has served greatly to attract the small investor towards Atlantic Coast Line securities.

den had taken an oath of allegiance to the House of Hanover before leaving their native land, and some had been forced to take that oath at the mouth of the Cape Fear by Gov. Martin before he would let them pass by into the interior. And so the Highlanders found themselves in the dilemma of having to choose between keeping their oath to the victorious House of Hanover whose persecutions had forced them to this strange land, or of taking up arms against the people of North Carolina who had so hospitably welcomed them to their shores.

"But a Highlander will keep his oath. Round the hearthstone in the old home in the highlands, he had learned, 'Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? Who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that walketh uprightly and speaketh the truth in his heart. He that sweareth to his own hurt and changeth not.' And hence he was as faithful to his oath and as loyal to the truth as Jeannie Deans when she refused to tell a lie to save her sister's neck from the hangman's noose. The Highlanders therefore became Tories and rallied around the standard erected by Gen. McDonald at Cross Creek. The intention of McDonald was, as you know, to lead his followers down to Gov. Martin on the coast where they might unite with British soldiers then on their way from the North and from England. Unwilling to risk an engagement with Col. Moore at Rockfish he attempted to reach Wilmington by way of Moore's Creek. In the meantime, Gov. Martin moved up the river to near Wilmington and standing on the deck of the Cruizer sloop of war anxiously and hopefully waited to catch sight of the advancing columns of the loyal clans and to hear the welcome, triumphant notes of the Scotchmen's bagpipes.

"Out here in the piney woods of North Carolina, at the point of the sword, the patriots ad the Tories are soon to setle forever the political future of North Carolina.

"In the early morning of Feb. 27th, 1776, the Highland hosts in attempting to cross yonder creek are turned back by the deadly fire of patriots behind breastworks on this little bluff, where we now stand, and soon the Tories, in headlong flight, justify the erection of that grown sandstone monerection of that brown sandstone monproud story of 'The first Victory Gained by American Arms in the War of the Revolution.'

"But our Scotch Highlanders, now that they are beaten, go back to their homes and their leaders are either imprisoned or paroled as prisoners of war.

During the long years of war that followed, they refrained from taking an active interest in the British cause but kept faithful to their oath to the new governmen, and as time rolled on they and their descendants took rank among the best citizens of our State, in fact North Carolina is today proud of the fact that the Highland blood flows in the veins of so many of her citizens.

"May I call your attention to a few of the leading traits of character in the Highland Scotch?

"The Highlander hated deception and we admire him for it. Lord Murray once raised a force of a thousand men on his father's estate on promise that they were to serve in the cause of King James. Later, while on review, they learned that they were to serve against him, and immediately in their wrath, they broke ranks, ran to a neighboring brook, filled their bonnets with water, and defiantly drank to the health of King James. The faithful keeping of an oath is reinforced by hatred of deception.

"And again the old Scotch Highlander hated cowardice and loved bravery, indeed he was a brave man and yet there was a time when he would not fight and that was when to fight would compromise his rights. It is said that when the Army of the Young Pretender at Culloden was ordered to the battle ,the left wing where the Clan McDonald was, refused to move forward because its record in war entitled it to the post of honor on the right and rather than take second place the McDonalds stubornly remained inactive till the battle was lost. And I believe that much of North Carolina's stubborn insistence on her rights comes from the Highland blood in the veins of her people. And, now, Mr. President, it is, I think, becoming that we are to have here on this historic spot a monument to the memory of brave men who died in loyalty to an oath—to men, whose descendants inheriting the sterling qualities of the Highland Scotch, have helped to make our State the good commonwealth that we are all so proud of.

"To you and your associates on the Board of Managers, I now take pleasure in presenting this monument of granite, as firm and as solid as the mountains of Scotland, as firm and as solid as the character of the Scotch Highlanders whose memory it is to perpetuate."

The speech of acceptance by President Moore, in behalf of the Monumental Association, was equally as eloquent as his former effort, expressing the belief that in erecting this monument its sponsors reflected the sentiment of every patriotic man and woman who understands the history of those conscientious people, and paying fine tribute to Capt McLeod and his comrades. "Now that we are living in the glorious light of the twentieth century," he asked, "should we not be willing to throw around the graves of these dead warriors the forgiving mantle of charity, which ever emanates from the truly great and brave and in dedicating this stone to their bravery do we not show to the world our magnanimity as the victors?" this being the beautiful closing sentiment with a quotation in verse appropriate to his closing.

Address of Dr. B. F. Dixon.

Following the unveiling ceremonies, the large crowd repaired again to the large pavilion where a particularly fine address was heard from Dr. B. F. Dixon, State Auditor of North Carolina and one of its most popular State officials. Dr. Dixon had for his theme the elements of real patriotism, which he conceived to be love of family, home, community, county, State and Nation. He paid high and deserved tribute to his old comrades in arms of the Confederacy and spoke of the inspiration which the lives of our ancestors should give this and future generations. He spoke for but a short time but his address was liberally punctuated with first-rate anecdotes, which kept the large audience in good humor and inspired them to nobler ideals of living and emulation. It is regretted that force of circumstances prevents a more liberal synopsis of his remarks, which were entirely extemporaneously but nevertheless greatly appreciated by his vast audience.

Dinner on the Grounds.

At the conclusion of Dr. Dixon's splendid address President Moore dismissed the audience and an elegant and bountiful dinner was served on the grounds. Everyone was well provided for and the celebration from this viewpoint especially was voted one of the greatest successes in the history of the many that have been given on the historic grounds.

A feature of much pleasure and interest for the large crowds was the firing of salutes at intervals during the day by a detachment of Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves, in command of Lieut. J. M. Murphy. The Reserves brought up their cannon and also their three-inch Howitzer and quite a military coloring was given the great celebration by the jolly tars.

—Elizabeth City, July 28.—Sweet potatoes are being shipped in large quantities from Currituck county via this city to Northern markets. The steamer Hamilton brought a cargo of 3,500 barrels. The prices are good.

—Winston-Salem Journal, July 28.—Messrs. G. H. Hastings, D. H. Blair and F. T. The office was created by the last legislature.

—Pender Chronicle: Messrs. R. L. Boyd, of the long distance Telephone Company, Dr. Cox, of Jacksonville, N. C. and Mr. E. H. Walton, of Onslow, arrived Tuesday evening in the interest of a telephone system for Burgaw and surrounding territory. A meeting was held Wednesday morning at which a committee was appointed to solicit stock and look after matters pertaining to the business. This committee is composed of Messrs. E. L. Larkins, J. T. Bland and W. D. Croom. We understand that as soon as the necessary stock is raised the largest part of which is already subscribed, work will begin at once.

—Winston-Salem, N. C., July 28.—Jos. A. Hege, a young farmer who stands well in his community, was put on trial here today, charged with murdering Mrs. Jennie Ketner on the night of September 19, 1908. Mrs. Ketner was killed while walking home from church. The defendant's horse ran into her, inflicting injuries which resulted in her death a few hours later. No preliminary trial was held but a recent grand jury returned a true bill against Hege for murder. Several hundred people were present when the case was called for trial today.

—Spring Hope, July 28.—Charles Stokes was shot last night by a negro woman at the Anderson bridge, at the terminus of the new railroad from Spring Hope toward Raleigh, and instantly killed. Stokes' body was simply riddled with shots. The woman, who ran a disorderly house, claimed that Stokes was trying to break into the house, and was attacking her with an open knife. When found this morning, Stokes had an open knife in his hand. He was one of the best negroes connected with the Montgomery Lumber Company, and was in a way an expert civil engineer.

—New York, July 28.—Maj. John F. Jones, of Blacksburg, S. C., today signed contracts with the Payne Electric Dredge Company whereby he acquires license rights for the use of their system of dredges on some 2,000 acres of gold and monazite-bearing lands in Golden Valley, Rutherford county, North Carolina. The plant will be established immediately. Major Jones has tested the new system and finds the yield $30 in gold to the cubic foot. The monazite, garnets and zircon yielded amounts up to several dollars to each yard. Engineers estimate there are 20,000,000 cubic yards to be dredged, all of which will yield a like amount. The plant to be installed will handle 2,000 yards daily.

—Rocky Mount, July 28.—According to a telephone message received by his parents in this city, about the noon hour, it is stated that Mr. John Boseman, the young man shot in a brawl in the red light district Monday night, is getting along as well as could be expected, and while his intstines were torn in a number of places, he stood well the operation, though his suffering seems to be intense. His father is at his bedside at the Wilson Sanitarium. Mattie Bryson, the woman who was severely cut up by Boseman, is getting along nicely, and there is no fear as to her recovery. Her greatest injury is a cut across the head, and this has been closed with a number of stitches, and she is getting along nicely today. The woman will not be able to attend the hearing on Friday morning.

—Lenoir, July 28.—The news reached here tonight of the death by drowning at Mortimer of two popular young women of that village, Miss Nannie Bailey and Miss Jetz. The tragedy occurred late this afternoon in the pond adjacent to the mill of the Ritter Lumber Company at that place. The bodies were recovered shrortly afterward and the funeral will take place some time tomorrow. Whether the young women were boating or bathing and just how they met their untimely end has not been ascertained. Mortimer is an obscure mountain village, eighteen miles from Lenoir and the telephone connection is poor. Miss Bailey was a daughter of Mr. William Bailey, manager of the Ritter Lumber Company and a student at Davenport College at the past session. Miss Jetz was a daughter of Mr. Jetz, the sawfiler of the lumber company. Miss Bailey had many friends in Lenoir.

Buy This Piano On Rental Terms

THE Mathushek Piano, while a very high grade instrument, is within the easy reach of every home. In fact, so small are the monthly payments required for its purchase that it is like buying a piano at rental rates.

A remarkable feature of the Mathushek Piano is that it is built to withstand the trying southern climate—and therefore any climate. The patent sounding board and tuning pins are so constructed that no matter how damp or hot the weather may be, or how dry the air of the room, the splendid tone of the Mathushek remains unimpaired.

AND it is tonal quality, after all, that proves the worth of any piano.

OTHER advantages of the Mathushek Piano are the quick, responsive action, the Sostenuto or Tone-Sustaining Pedal and the Improved Muffler or Soft Stop, all combining to produce and maintain a unique musical efficiency.

THE Mathushek Piano requires but little tuning.

STYLE 20, shown above, is well worth $600 according to other piano standards. Its price is only $450, and purchase can be arranged $25.00 down and as little as $10.00 a month thereafter. Your old piano taken in part payment.

THE Mathushek Piano has been made for 40 years. Forty thousand in use the world over.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 29.—While somewhat irregular the general tendency of the cotton market today was upward as a result of bullish crop condition reports and the close was steady at a net gain of 6 to 11 points. The market opened steady at a decline of 2 points to an advance of one point with sentiment divided between unfavorable advices and the report of national ginners association making the condition of the crop 71.7 against 72 per cent. reported on July 19th and 75.6 per cent. last month. Another report issued at the opening made the condition 71 per cent. against the government August bureau of 83 per cent. last year. These reports seemed on the whole to offset the disappointing cables and unfavorable opinions regarding the foreign trade business situation, disturbance in Spain and the threat of a big strike by English miners and the market soon sold up to a net advance of 10 to 12 points. After a moderate reaction from this level as a result of realizing the market firmed up again on the predictions for higher temperatures in Texas and at one time during the afternoon sold 12 to 15 points net higher with December touching 12.49 or a shade over the best price of yesterday. Later rumors that a private condition report to be issued tomorrow would show in the neighborhood of 75 per cent. and an idea that a bullish bureau had been discounted, prompted realizing and selling for a turn under which the market lost 10 or 11 points of the advance but spot interests were buyers on this decline and December closed at 12.43 bid.

Receipts at the ports today were 2,510 bales against 2,183 last week and 2,711 last year. For the week 20,000 bales against 18,877 last week and 28,579 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 468 bales against 143 last year and at Houston 477 bales against 569 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 5 points advance; middling uplands 12.80; middling gulf 13.05; sales 1,200 bales.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 29.—Moderate purchases of piece goods in the jobbing houses are reported. Buyers now in the markets are operating quite freely on ready-to-wear merchandise. Printed staples continue to sell steadily and the impression is abroad in the market that prices will soon be higher. Yarns are firm but only moderately active.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 29.—The usually active speculative stocks fell into neglect today but a diversion of interest to the less prominent quarters of the list rectified the bull appearance of the market and supplied points of strength that gave tone to the whole market.

The decidedly firmer tone in the time money market was a dissuasive influence on speculative activity. The premonitory symptoms of the seasonable demand from the crop moving sections are appearing in the banking world and the possible consequences to speculative borrowers are beginning to be taken into account. The disorders in Spain and the threatened aspect of political affairs there was disturbing influences abroad but had very little influence here. Grain crop advices were considered favorable. The cotton crop is the subject of apprehension and the poor condition reported by the National Ginners' Report lead to anticipation of a discouraging government report to be published Monday. Stocks of railroads in Southern territory, some of them distinctively cotton carriers, were, nevertheless among the principal features of strength in the market. Those included a particular movement in the Gould group and also in Louisville & Nashville, Atlantic Coast Line and in less degree Southern Railway.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales today $4,616,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today 603,300 shares.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 29.—Money on call easy 1 3-4 to 2 per cent., ruling rate 1 5-8, closing bid 1 1-2, offered at 1 7-8. Time loans very strong and fairly active; 60 days 2 1-8 to 2 1-4 per cent., and 90 days 2 14 to 2 1-2 per cent., six months 3 5-8 to 3 3-4 per cent. Close: Prime mercantile paper 3 3-4 to 4 per cent., sterling exchange weak with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8570 to 4.8580 for 60 day bills and at 4.8705 for demand. KENT NAMED FOR GOVERNOR

Prohibitionist Nominated for Lieutenant Governor—Kent to Give Up $5,000 Job to Make Race. Former Gold Democrat.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Newport News, Va., July 29.—Placing themselves squarely on record as favoring local option with counties and cities as the unit instead of magisterial districts as under the present law, the Virginia Republicans today accepted the liquor question as an issue in the approaching gubernatorial campaign. Then, after adopting a platform, of which the liquor plank was the principal feature, and selecting a State ticket headed by William P. Kent, of Wytheville, present American consul general to Quatemala, they adjourned their State convention sine die.

The discussion of prohibition was precipitated soon after the convention met near noonday by the reading of the following plank of the platform as drafted by the resolutions committee:

"We favor the general principle of local option, high license, rigid police protection and a strict enforcement of the law."

Objection to this resolution came instantaneously and emphatically. Like a black cloud across a sky of unbroken blue came southwest Virginia's storm of protest to disturb the harmony which had prevailed in the convention. The plank as represented was declared to be meaningless and indicative of acquiescence in the existing law. One speaker from the Ninth District said that he and his people were in favor of state-wide prohibition but realized that it was not so desirable in the large cities of the State as it was in this section.

As an amendment to the platform, State Senator A. T. Lincoln, of Smyth, offered the following substitute for the liquor plank:

"We favor the general principle of local option and that the counties and cities be a unit in all elections on the liquor question, with rigid enforcement of the law."

Then the debate began and it was soon apparent that the amendment had its supporters in every section of the State. Mr. Lincoln led the fight for its adoption and was so conspicuously successful in urging his cause that after the substitute had been incorporated in the platform by a vote of 700 to 310, that he was immediately put forward as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor. Although a slate already had been prepared, the leaders thought it wise to nominate him for the second place on the ticket and no one opposed him. Nominated, the ticket was as follows:

For Governor—William P. Kent, of Wytheville.

For Lieutenant Governor—A. T. Lincoln, of Smythe.

For Attorney General—George A. Rovercomb, of Covington.

For Secretary of the Commonwealth—John B. Locke, of Newport News.

For State Treasurer—Joseph L. Crupper, of Alexandria.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction—Frank P. Brent, of Nelson.

State Chairman C. Bascum Slemp spent the greater part of the last night in heading off what appeared to be a well organized movement to nominate him for Governor. He finally accomplished this by appealing to the heads of the ten district delegations not to allow anyone to place his name before the convention. To those who knew of the movement, however, it appeared that the convention might be stampeded for Slemp when the gathering broke into a demonstration at the mention of his name during the reading of the platform plank endorsing the State chairman, National Committeeman Alvah H. Martin and National Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock. The stampede did not materialize, however, and Kent's name was the only one placed in nomination. Every man on the ticket was nominated by acclamation.

In accepting the nomination for Governor, Mr. Kent told the convention that he was giving up a $5,000 position to make the race but that he was prepared to wage an active fight and would do his best to win. Mr. Lincoln said that he would accept the nomination for Lieutenant Governor in order to give strength to the prohibition movement but that he did not intend to engage in any discussion of the personalities of his opponents.

The Abingdon dispensary in Washington county, in southwest Virginia, is said to have been largely responsible for the fight which the prohibitionists waged with such success today. Citizens of that county claim that Abingdon maintained that dispensary by virtue of authority vested in it under existing law, although the majority of the residents of the county were opposed to the sale of liquor in the county. Under the unit rule, the county would vote entirely on the local option question, and only cities within it—and by cities is meant places having corporation courts—would have the right to vote separately from the county. Delegates from the southwest declared that they had won a big victory as the sale of liquor was a great menace in that section owing to poor police protection.

Mr. Kent, the nominee for Governor, is a son of a former Democratic Lieutenant Governor of Virginia. He was formerly a gold Democrat but became a Republican 13 years ago when Bryan was nominated the first time. He is said to be a man of large means, a good stump speaker and one qualified to wage an active fight.
